

Holy Toledo! – Glass City Tour

Wednesday, February 4th, 2026

About Rosary Cathedral:

The cathedral is the mother church of the 163 parishes in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Toledo. This cathedral is unique architecturally in that it was designed in the Spanish Plateresque style. It was designed with Toledo's Sister City, Toledo, Spain in mind. Finished in 1931, it was built in the spirit of the great European cathedrals of the Middle Ages.

Tony Packo's:

I hope you brought your appetite! We're heading to Tony Packo's. Choose one of their delicious Entrées (Tony Packo's Famous Roast Beef, Tony Packo's One of a Kind Hot Dog with your choice of soup or chili, Tony Packo's Stuffed Cabbage with Kraut, or Chicken Paprikas with Chicken Dumplings). You'll finish off your meal with Tony Packo's Famous Strudel (Apple or Cherry)..

Toledo Glass Pavilion:

The Glass Pavilion received Travel + Leisure's Design Award for "Best Museum". It is—in itself—a work of art. All exterior and nearly all interior walls consist of large panels of curved glass, resulting in a transparent structure that blurs the boundaries between interior and exterior spaces.
